Road Marking Spray - RED Semi permanent

Product Code: 14502R

Information

Temporary Linemarker Paint can be used on most surfaces where a temporary mark is required. The product is useful for indicating areas of excavation, construction work and accident scene marking. The flexible spray pattern ensures that various types of marking may easily be carried out. Temporary Linemarker has a useful life of approximately four weeks under dry weather conditions and after removal will leave the area free from unsightly paint marks.
